

GfZK & Library^A
of Friends

20th October 2012 5-7pm
Museum of Contemporary Art Leipzig (GfZK), Black Box
Karl-Tauchnitz-Str. 11

David
Bennewith

Graphic Designer and Educator, Amsterdam

James
Langdon

Graphic Designer, Birmingham, writes regularly for "Grafik"

A series of talks and a library of books that have become friends and dear companions to our invited speakers.

Two guests will be talking about one book chosen by him or her that is not in the college library yet, but will now become part of the growing "Library of Friends".

Are You Talking to Me?

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Conceptual design in the communication of art institutions

Friday, 19th October

Lectures 3–6 pm

Panel Discussion 6.30–8 pm

Museum of Contemporary Art Leipzig (GfZK)

Karl-Tauchnitz-Str. 11 www.gfzk.de

Urs Lehni

Corner College, Zürich

James Langdon

Eastside Projects, Birmingham

Binna Choi

Casco, Utrecht

David Bennewith

Colophon, Amsterdam

Andrew Blauvelt

Walker Art Center, Minneapolis

The conference is organized by the Galerie für Zeitgenössische Kunst Leipzig as a part of Urs Lehni's INFORM-Prize-project.

In cooperation with Prof. Oliver Klimpel and the Klasse System-Design at the Academy for Visual Arts Leipzig.

The INFORM-Prize has been awarded on an annual basis since 2007 and incorporates both graphic design and art.

The award is donated by Dr. Arend Oetker.

schweizer kulturstiftung

prohelvetia
 BRITISH COUNCIL

Stimuleringsfonds
voor Architectuur
 the Netherlands Architecture Fund

U.S. Consulate General
Leipzig