

A man with glasses, wearing a grey suit jacket, a red shirt, and a dark tie, is seated at a desk. He is looking towards the camera. In the background, a map of the German Democratic Republic (DDR) is displayed, colored in a dark red. The map shows the outline of the country with a white border. The word "DDR" is written in a white box with a black border in the center of the map. The word "Berlin" is written in a blue box with a white border near the top of the map. The man's hands are resting on a roll of paper on the desk.
